JOINT MOTION TO AMEND SCHEDULING ORDER

The parties in the above-captioned action respectfully move this Court to amend the scheduling order in this matter as set forth below. As discussed in a telephone call with counsel for both parties and the Court’s Deputy Courtroom Clerk, Ms. Wild, the parties are actively exploring settlement options and it is their view that postponing the motion hearing by two weeks would promote the efficient use of judicial resources.

Accordingly, the parties hereby jointly move the Court to adjust the amended scheduling order dated July 14, 2010 (Docket No. 122), so that the motion hearing on the parties’ summary judgment motions scheduled in this matter be held on September 21, 2010 at 9:00 a.m., a date

Ms. Wild indicated was suitable from the Court's perspective.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY K. KING,

GENERAL
